

The Transparency Code introduced by The Government requires parish council's with a turnover less than £25,000 to publish details of all land and building that it owns.

In compliance with this code it is declared that Swardeston Parish Council owns no land or buildings.